Foreword...

"If today will not, tomorrow may." What an optimistic thought! It was this optimism which we have for the future that prompted the annual staff to choose this theme. In today's atomic age, much attention is given to rocket ships, modern designs, and all the things that depict the unknown, yet hopeful, future. While holding on to these optimistic thoughts of tomorrow, the staff has tried to present a true picture of Union University in the year of 1955, Lest We Forget.

Dedication . . .

MR. THOMAS O. HALL

The year 1949 brought Mr. Hall to Union's campus. Since then he has daily grown taller in the eyes of the students.

In addition to excellent teaching, he has demonstrated a quick humor, warm friendliness, an intense interest in campus affairs, and best of all a lofty religious zeal.

We, the staff of 1955, therefore, dedicate this annual to him, our professor and friend.

Mr. J. O. Hall

My dear Friends:

Many people write books. Some write fiction, some biography, some history, others poetry. All may be different in form and pattern, but one element remains universal. Every book contains a message—and that peculiar to the purpose of the author.

Your annual staff of 1955 has prepared for you a book. Though unique in form, it too contains a message peculiar to the purpose of its authors, of whom you, a student at Union University, are one. You have contributed to its contents; you have helped to establish its purpose.

As you read your college annual through the years, it will remind you of the objectives and ideals of your Alma Mater, of which you were a part. It will portray more and more meaningfully the true message of four years of college life. It will remind you of friendships made, of lessons learned, of academic achievement, of spiritual enrichment. The message of this book, therefore, like so many good things will become more and more precious and will unfold in its richness as the years unfold your own maturity.

Lest we forget, let us read and re-read its pages often.

Sincerely yours,

Warren F. Jones

Honors

*Who's Who Among Students In American Colleges
And Universities*

"Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" is a national publication in which the biographies of outstanding college students appear. Persons named for this honor are selected on the basis of character, leadership and scholarship, as well as participation in extra-curricular activities.

Public recognition of the worthy achievements of nine of the students of Union University has been made by their selection for this honor. Their pictures and thumb-nail sketches are given on the following five pages.

We are proud of every one of them and believe they will bear their honors humbly and effectively in the years to come.

Emily Clare Wieland

An attractive brunette from Trenton, Tennessee, has contributed greatly to our campus with her many talents. Emily, an accomplished vocalist and pianist, has taken active part in all campus activities. She has served as president of her fraternity, Chi Omega, and as president of Pan Hellenic Council, Allegro, Hypatia, and chorus members will easily remember Emily as one of the faithful. As Emily leaves our campus for a teaching career, we wish her success along life's road.

Christine Sisson

Christine, from Lexington, Tennessee, is one of those persons who possesses the coveted ability of working mathematics. She has been very active in Zeta Tau Alpha activities, serving as president in her senior year. Christine has been secretary and vice-president of the Mallory Math Club, circle chairman in Y. W. A., and a member of the student council.

Virginia Moore Sewell

Attractive and friendly, "Jinny" Sewell of Jackson has been an active participant in campus activities. Her Christian influence has been a helping hand to many students. She has served Chi Omega as rush chairman and pledge mistress and held offices in the Prince-Davis Science Club, Allegro, and the B. S. U. Council. Her cooperative spirit assures us that she will be a success as she seeks her goal as a medical missionary.

Charlotte Peddy

An efficient leader in most every field is Charlotte Peddy from Henderson. In Dramatics and religious activities, she has been especially outstanding through Alpha Psi Omega, Footlights Club, B. S. U. Council, Y. W. A., and B. S. U. choir. Charlotte has also been a member of the Phi Alpha Theta, Hypatia, and Rutledge History Club. To further carry out her religious work, Charlotte plans to enter the seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

Leon Morris

One of the most well-rounded personalities on the campus is Leon Morris from Martin, Tennessee. To know Leon is to like him. During his years at Union, he has been chosen for many honors such as Mr. Union, President of the student body, and Most Popular Boy. He has served Alpha Tau Omega as chaplain.

Besides serving as pastor of a church, he has been an active member of the Ministerial Association, Nestor Club, and Hypatia.

Carolyn Hill

Carolyn Hill of Ripley, Tennessee, has been a true inspiration to the students. Her scholastic record is a challenge to future students. Carolyn has served as vice-president of Freshman class, President of the Latin Club, Chapter Correspondent of Chi Omega, and a member of the Mallory Math Club. This year she was chosen as Miss Union. Carolyn's cheerful smile and sweet singing voice will long be remembered by her fellow students.

Foy Lisenby

Foy Lisenby of Jackson, Tennessee, a gifted artist, and a cooperative spirit, has been a constant worker in student affairs. Foy has been editor of CARDINAL AND CREAM, LEST WE FORGET staff, vice-president of Phi Alpha Theta, a member of Nestor Club, student council, Hypatia, and Rutledge History Club. Foy's talents will be useful in his teaching career.

Sadie Lou Johnson

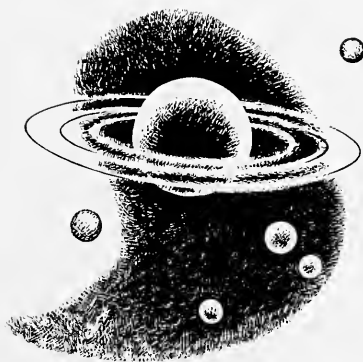

Sadie, a Jackson senior, is a young lady with an amazing vitality for living and a joy to those who know her. She has been a member of B. S. U. Council, secretary of Footlights Club, program chairman of Hypatia, vice-president of Alpha Psi Omega and vice-president of the Junior Class. We wish her success as she enters a teaching career.

Marie Armstrong

Marie Armstrong, of Memphis, Tennessee, has been a tremendous Christian influence on those who have been closely associated with her. Marie served as vice-president of the Sophomore Class, secretary of the Senior Class, and vice-president of the Student Council. She has held the offices of vice-president and pledge mistress in Zeta Tau Alpha and was a member of the Mallory Math Club. Marie has outlined a career in religious education with additional training in the seminary.

The Cardinal and Cream has come to mean on Union's campus what the large newspapers mean in America—freedom of expression of thought and ideas. To the students at Union every publication is a sought after and prized possession. This monthly production is certainly a credit to its school.

BETA TAU CHAPTER

Established February 29, 1893

The Beta Tau Chapter of Union University has drawn from every walk of life its membership and instilled in these minds the principle of Christian brotherhood. This fellowship combined with scholarship and extra-curricular activities has formed a well-rounded program for the ATO's on Union's campus.

This year again found the Taus outstanding in every phase of campus life. Editor of Lest We Forget was Forrest Shearon. Leon Morris was selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and also elected most Popular Boy. The Vice-President of the Senior class was Richard Ross. ATO's also held places of leadership in numerous campus organizations and clubs.

In the field of athletics the Beta Tau boys "stole the show." Under the leadership of co-captain Billy B. Smith, the basketball team consisted mostly of ATO's. The baseball team showed virtually every position dominated by Taus, and they came out on top in the football intramurals by virtue of a 12-0 record. And who can forget the great playing done by the ATO's in the basketball commercial league, on the tennis courts and the golf course.

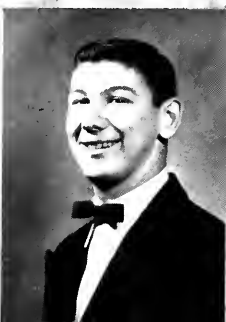

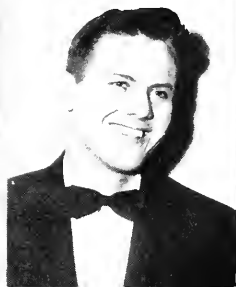

These honors, features, and activities combined with beautiful banquets, warm social events, a wonderful sweetheart, and a loving fraternity mother, round out a year keyed out by success and highlighted by a close fellowship of the brothers of Alpha Tau Omega.

Founded at the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, March 9, 1856

Colors: Royal Purple and Old Gold

Flower: Purple Violet

Union University's 1954-55 Sig Alphas combined friendship, fun and fraternity to lay the framework for lasting bonds of brotherhood, while continuing to take active leadership in campus activities and honors.

On the social scene, SAE celebrated the fraternity's 99th birthday at Founder's Day Banquet. Coronation Banquet was the highlight of fall semester. Spring Splash, underprivileged children's Christmas Party, and open house helped to make chapter social life complete.

Tennessee Eta's "A Little Bit of Everything" provided Jackson and West Tennessee entertainment lovers an above-the-average variety show. Renovation and redecoration of the 200 N. Hays SAE Chapter House also kept actives and pledges busy.

Upsilon of Chi Omega

Founded at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, Arkansas, April 5, 1895

Colors: Cardinal and Straw

Flower: White Carnation

An enjoyable and happy year for Chi Omegas must eventually come to a close. Through the year Chi O's have been the recipients of many awards. Among these are Queen of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Best All-round Girl, Most Popular Girl, Miss Union, Cheerleaders, Strawberry Queen and two of her maids, representatives in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Freshman Queen and Maid, Basketball Maid and representatives in the Ten Most Beautiful Girls. Offices and memberships were held also in Hypatia Literary Society, Footlights Dramatic Club, Alpha Psi Omega, Latin Club, History Club, Allegro, Theta Kappa Pi, Minerva Club, LEST WE FORGET staff, CARDINAL AND CREAM staff, Library Staff, Student Council, B.S.U. Council, and the Prince-Davis Science Club.

Giving of Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, playing Santa Claus for a group of children, aiding in the polio drive and the collection for the heart fund have been a part of Chi Omega's civic activities. Their social life has included an Introductory Tea for Pledges, an annual winter banquet, Fall and Spring Eleusinia, a blue-jeans party, numerous slumber parties, and a spring outing.

Regretfully they see a happy year close, but they look anxiously to the future and the fulfilment of their many dreams.

Beta Omega of Zeta Tau Alpha

Founded at Longwood College, Farmville, Virginia, October 15, 1898

Colors: Turquoise Blue and Steel Gray

Flower: White Violet

As another year comes to a close, Beta Omega can truly say this has been a good year for us. Many of our girls have proved to be campus leaders in all phases of the school activities.

Honors for our members were numerous: Betty Castleman was crowned Sweet-heart of Alpha Tau Omega; Joyce Shelton reigned as Basketball Queen with Rosanne Wilson, Betty Castleman, and Annice Kidd as maids. Rosanne Wilson and Sheila Morris were maids to Miss Union. On the Student Council were Marie Armstrong, Christine Sisson, and Rosanne Wilson. Marie Armstrong and Christine Sisson were selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Several girls held offices in their classes, Y.W.A., B.S.U., Spanish Club, Allegro, Annual Staff, Math Club, and the Prince-Davis Science Club. Other than these extra-curricular activities we maintained a very good scholastic standing.

We didn't forget the social activities. Christmas parties, teas, banquets, and a hayride gave a gay atmosphere to the year.

The officers for the past year were as follows:

Union University's Bulldogs opened their second season under Coach Dick Wehr by bowing the Lipscomb's Bisons from Nashville by the score of 63 to 71.

The second game of the season saw the Bulldogs succumb to Ole Miss in a hard fought ballgame, 59-67. The bulldogs threw quite a score into the Southeastern Conference Power.

Union capped their first win from Florence State by soundly trouncing the Lions, 85-69.

Union dropped the next game to Belmont by the humiliating score of 70-97.

While still suffering from the effects of the Belmont game, the Big Reds lost again to U. T. Martin Branch, 57-68.

The Unionites came back strong to soundly whip a highly regarded Arkansas State team by the decisive score of 84-67.

The Bulldog team seemed to be gaining momentum as they squeezed past a strong Bethel team, 75-73.

The Mississippi College Choctaws came to town and left again on the long end of a 63-87 score.

The Red team dropped its next four losing to East Texas State, 75-93; and then Arkansas State Teachers, 73-75.

Memphis State dropped the Bulldogs, 67-99; this was followed by a 61-73 loss to Southwestern.

The Union Team, led by Seniors Billy B. Smith and Jim Byassee, got hot and took the next five in a row: Belmont, 86-70; Austin Peay, 84-68; Florence State, 86-79; Southwestern, 95-61.

Austin Peay stopped the try for six in a row by outlasting the Big Reds 71-73 in an overtime period.

U. T. Martin downed the Unionites again, 85-92.

The Big Reds came back with wins over Lipscomb, Christian Brothers College, and Milligan.

A strong L. M. U. team dumped them 72-87. The Bulldogs came home and knocked off C. B. C. and Bethel before entering the V. S. A. C. Tournament.

In the V. S. A. C. tourney, Bethel, a team Union had squeezed by twice previously, knocked them out of the tournament in the first game.

On the long road trip after the tournament, the Bulldogs dropped games to Arkansas State, Delta State, and Mississippi College.
